What is ESS?

Employee Self Service, or ESS, is a group of computer programs that enables Senate employees to electronically access various administrative forms and reports used by the Senate to conduct its daily business.

ESS is accessed from the Senate's intranet at http://Senateonline and displays the following groups which are accessed from the ESS menu bar:

- My Info. These programs enable a Senate employee to view his/her employee profile and current and past payroll information.
- Time and Attendance. These programs enable Senate employees to electronically enter, update, and submit current time records as well as review past time and attendance information. It also enables Senate Time and Attendance Supervisors to electronically manage and process all time records for the employees they oversee.
- Supply. These programs enable Senate offices to view and order Senate supplies online.
- Help. This area offers basic information about ESS and gives specific directions for common ESS tasks.

ESS data is not stored locally on your PC; rather it is processed and stored on a server in the STS Computer Center. To ensure ESS information is secure, all data is encrypted and cannot be accessed without a valid Senate userID and password.

Available Programs

Refer to the following chart to learn about the Employee Self Service (ESS) programs, their descriptions, and who can access them. To see what these programs look like, see "7-Example Screens" in this guide.

Program	Description	Who Can Access It
My Info
Current Info	The Current Info allows you to view your Senate employee profile, which includes your personnel, payroll, and workplace information.	All Employees
Paycheck History	The Paycheck History allows you to view your paycheck earnings and deductions for the current calendar year, all previous calendar years, and all fiscal calendar years. (Note that data only goes back to the first pay period with a check date of 1993). Upon displaying the screen, your first paycheck for the calendar year appears at the top and the year-to-date totals appear at the bottom of each column. In addition, earning or deduction changes amounting to three cents or more are bold on the screen.
Time and Attendance
Attendance Record Entry	The Attendance Record Entry is used to record your hours worked and accruals used for the current payroll period or previous payroll periods. After completing a record, your information is submitted directly to your Time and Attendance Supervisor for review. If there are any discrepancies, you are notified that your electronic record has been rejected. You then must make the necessary corrections and resubmit it. Approved records are submitted directly to the Senate Personnel office. Note that the Attendance Record Entry screen displays differently for regular annual employees and temporary employees.	All Employees
Attendance History	The Attendance History allows you to view a summary of your past time records for the current year and previous years. This information is calculated using the Attendance Record Entry information that you have submitted to the Senate Personnel office for each past pay period.
Payroll Calendar	The Payroll Calendar allows you to display the Senate payroll calendar for the current or past years. This calendar highlights payroll periods and approved holidays.
Accrual History	The Accrual Summary allows you to view a summary of your used personal, vacation, and sick hours for each pay period in the current year and for a previous year.

Program	Description	Who Can Access It
Accrual Projections	The Accrual Projections allows you to view a summary of personal, vacation, and sick time that you have used in past pay periods for the current year and enables you to project personal, sick, and vacation hours that you may use in future pay periods during the current year, allowing you to see what your final balances may total.	Regular Annual and Special Annual Employees
Review Time Records	Used by Time and Attendance Supervisors only, Review Time Records is used to review, approve, or disapprove time records submitted by employees that you supervise.	Time and Attendance Supervisors
Employee Attendance History	Used by Time and Attendance Supervisors only, the Employee Attendance History screen is used to display all current and past time records for all employees that you supervise and oversee.
Grant Supervisor Access	Used by Time and Attendance Supervisors only, Grant Supervisor Access is used to temporarily transfer Time and Attendance Supervisor access privileges to another Time and Attendance Supervisor. You can only transfer this access to other Time and Attendance Supervisors who are listed on the screen and have been selected as suitable substitutes (e.g., your Time and Attendance Supervisor).
Supply
Requisition Form	Used by authorized employees only, the Requisition Form is used to order office products that are kept in stock by the Senate Supply office.	Authorized Employees
Shopping Cart	The Shopping Cart displays a list of all office products that you have selected but have not submitted to Senate Supply to be fulfilled and delivered to your office.
Order History	The Order History allows you to view pending, processed, completed, approved, and/or rejected orders your office has submitted to Senate Supply for a specified period of time.	All Employees

Access ESS

Requirements for ESS Access

Employee Self Service (ESS) is accessed from the Senate's intranet at http://Senateonline. In order to access ESS, you must:

- Be a Senate employee.
- Have a Senate username (a.k.a., userID) and ESS account password.

How to Get a Senate Username and Account

If you are a new Senate employee, complete the following to obtain a Senate username and password and, in turn, access to ESS:

1. Visit the Senate Personnel office and complete all paperwork which includes a username/userID request form. Your completed paperwork is sent to your office's assigned STS Office Support Representative (OSR) who contacts the office manager to confirm the new employee's information.
2. When you receive your username and IBM Notes/iNotes password by regular office mail, your Senate account is ready. If necessary, contact your OSR who will help you sign-in for the first time.
3. Use your Senate username and password to access ESS. See "Sign In to ESS" below.

Sign In to ESS

1. On your Senate PC, open a browser and display http://Senateonline.
2. On the black menu bar, click ESS. ESS appears and by default displays your Attendance Record Entry screen.

Sign Out of ESS

1. With ESS displayed, click the Sign Out link in the top right corner of the screen.

About Automatic Sign Out

After 10 minutes of inactivity in Employee Self Service (ESS), the Inactive Session Timeout screen displays. Once the Timeout screen appears, you have one minute before you are automatically signed out of ESS. If the screen appears and you do not want to exit, click Continue to stay in ESS.

This Timeout screen and automatic sign out feature prevents unauthorized personnel from viewing an unattended ESS session.

Get Help

Refer to the following chart to learn who to call for ESS help.

Issue	Who to Call	Example
Program Help You need general help using ESS or you receive an error message.	STS Help Line at 2011 from any Senate phone.	You are having difficulty printing out a past time record, or you receive an Internal Error message. The STS Help Line is monitored by STS's Office Support Representatives (OSRs) from the Education and Support unit and can help solve general questions regarding ESS as well as Windows, Microsoft Office, other PC software, hardware, printers, PC performance, and general office automation questions.
Screen Data You have specific questions about the information displaying in ESS.	Senate Administrative Office responsible for the information.	You have a question on the vacation time balance that is displaying in your Attendance Record Entry screen, so you contact the Senate Personnel office.

2 | My Attendance

Enter and Submit a Time Record

1. Log in to Employee Self Service (ESS).

2. On the top menu bar, click Time & Attendance. The Attendance Record Entry appears on the right by default.

3. At the top of the Attendance Record Entry, select a pay period for which you want to update and/or submit a time record.

   | NOTE | If you are up-to-date with your submissions, the current pay period displays and is selected. If you have outstanding time records, the earliest payroll period displays and is selected. Time and Attendance Records must be submitted in chronological order.

4. To enter work time, click the box for a specific date under the Work column and type the hours worked. Blank boxes are considered zero (0). Temporary (hourly) employees can use one quarter hour (.25) increments, but all other employees must round to the nearest half hour (.5).

   | NOTE | If you work past midnight on any particular day, you should report all time up to midnight on the appropriate calendar day on your time record and all time after midnight on the next calendar day.

5. To enter non-work time, click the box for a specific date and column and type the number of hours. Review the following:

   - Holiday time. If you are a Regular Annual employee, the holiday time automatically appears on your record and cannot be edited. If you are a Special Annual employee, click the box for the designated holiday date and type the number of holiday hours permitted by your Appointing Authority.

   - Travel time. The Travel column only appears after your travel paperwork has been approved by the Secretary of the Senate. To use travel time, click the box for the date you travelled and type the number of travel hours.

   - Vacation, Personal, and Sick time. To use your accrued leave, click the appropriate box and type the number of hours. Your accrued leave balances display at the top of the screen; you cannot submit a record if you enter hours that are not available.

   - Miscellaneous time. Click the box under the Misc column for the date involved and type the number of miscellaneous hours. To the right, click the No Misc Hours drop-down arrow and select the type of miscellaneous time used (e.g., Bereavement Leave, Jury Leave). Please note that certain codes require supporting documentation be submitted to the Personnel Office.

   - Comments (Temporary Employees Only). After entering the number of work hours, click the Comment box in the same row and enter the actual beginning and ending times worked (e.g., 9–11 a.m., 1–4 p.m.).

   - Remarks (Optional). To add a note to your Time and Attendance Supervisor, click the Notes/Remarks box at the bottom and type your text.

     | NOTE | If you enter non-work time that exceeds the accrual amount you have banked, an error message will display and you must adjust the time entered.

6. Complete one of the following:

   - To save but not submit the record, click the Save Record button at the bottom. When "Your time record has been saved" appears, click Log out of ESS to exit or click Go back to ESS.
   - To submit the record, click Submit Record button at the bottom. When "Before submitting, you must acknowledge the following" appears, read the employee certification, and click I agree. When "Your time record has been submitted" message appears, click Log out of ESS to exit or click Go back to ESS to display the next time record.

     | NOTE | Use the Submit Record button ONLY when you are ready to submit a completed time record since it will be directed to your Time and Attendance Supervisor and you will no longer have access to edit the time record.

View and Print Past Time Records

1. Log in to Employee Self Service (ESS).
2. On the top menu bar, click Time & Attendance. The Attendance Record Entry appears on the right by default.
3. On the left Time and Attendance Menu, click Attendance History.
4. Review the information on the right and note that:
    - At the top, the View attendance records for year drop down automatically defaults to the current year.
    - In the middle, your Active Attendance Records appear. Click on a current or outstanding time record here to open, edit, and submit it.
    - On the bottom, your Historical Attendance Records appear. These are time records that have already been submitted for the selected year.
5. If necessary, on the top right, click View attendance records for the year drop down arrow and select the year for which you want to view submitted time.
6. Under Historical Attendance Records, click the row with the desired time record date range.
7. When the Attendance record for... window appears, complete one of the following:
    - To close the window, click Exit in the bottom right corner.

Correct a Time Record

1. Upon receiving an email from your Time and Attendance Supervisor or the Personnel Office indicating that your time record was rejected, log in to Employee Self Service (ESS).
2. On the top menu bar, click Time & Attendance. The Attendance Record Entry appears on the right by default.
3. At the top of the Attendance Record Entry, select the pay period for the time record that needs to be corrected and resubmitted.

   | NOTE | The status message "Supervisor Disapproved" appears next to the active time record that needs to be corrected.
4. Make the appropriate corrections.
5. Click the Submit Record button at the bottom.
6. When "Before submitting, you must acknowledge the following..." appears, read the certification, and click I Agree.
7. When "Your time record has been submitted" appears, click Log out of ESS to exit or click Go back to ESS to display the next time record.

View Time Summary and Accrual Rates

1. Log in to Employee Self Service (ESS).
2. On the top menu bar, click Time & Attendance.
3. On the left Time and Attendance Menu, under My Accruals, click Accrual History. Your current personal, sick, and vacation hour accrual rates and balances appear on the right.
4. Note that the information displaying in the first row under each Avail column indicates the available personal, vacation, and sick hours that you can use as of that pay period.
5. To view a summary of all accrual rates and balances by pay periods for a previous year, click the Filter by Year drop down arrow and select the year.

   | NOTE | For more information regarding your accrual rates and the appropriate use of those accruals, please refer to the Overview of the Senate's Time and Attendance Plan.

Print Your Time and Attendance Report

1. Log in to Employee Self Service (ESS).
2. On the top menu bar, click Time & Attendance.
3. On the left Time and Attendance Menu, under My Accruals, click Accrual History.
4. On the right, your current personal, sick, and vacation hour accrual rates and balances appear. To view a summary of all accrual rates and balances by pay periods for a previous year, click the Filter by Year drop down arrow and select the year.
5. Click the row for the Pay Period for which you want to print your accrual usage and rates.
6. When the Accrual Usage for... window appears, complete one of the following:
   - To display and print the Time and Attendance Report, click Print Record in the bottom right corner. When the report PDF appears, right-click on the PDF, select Print, complete the print dialog box, and click Print. Close the window.
   - To close the window, click Exit in the bottom right corner.

Project Balance for Future Time Charged

1. Log in to Employee Self Service (ESS).
2. On the top menu bar, click Time & Attendance.
3. On the left Time and Attendance Menu, under My Accruals, click Accrual Projections. Your current personal, sick, and vacation hour accrual rates and balances appear on the right.
4. Note that the selected row is the current pay period. This row's Avail columns indicate the available personal, vacation, and sick hours that you can still use and its Use columns reflects what you have already entered in your current time record.
5. Under the Use column, click a personal, vacation, or sick box and enter the time you may charge for that pay period.
6. Repeat the previous step until you've entered all of your projected time off information.
7. Note that the last row is the last pay period for the calendar year and now projects under each Avail column your personal, vacation, and sick hours balance.

4 | Manage Employees
